

ON-SITE EXPERIENCES FOR BERLIN OFFICES

Team-Event Catalogue

Thursday fills up. The other four days, less so. 23 on-site experiences from six vetted Berlin partners. Small, good reasons for your team to choose the office.

One booking. Not six.

You shouldn't have to chase the people you booked to show up. Every partner here is vetted, briefed by us, and accountable to us. You pick a date; one named contact handles the rest.

01Tell us the date

Pick an experience and a rough headcount. One message is enough. No brief required.

02We brief the partner

We confirm timing, space, and dietary needs with the partner, and keep you posted.

03They run it, you take the credit

On the day it just happens. One invoice, nothing to chase, and a team that actually showed up.
